Services Provided Court Appointed Special Advocates for Children (CASA) and the Children's Advocacy Centers (CAC). CASA volunteers are trained community volunteers appointed by a judge to speak up for abused or neglected children in the court system. CASA volunteers work alongside attorneys and social workers from case inception to its completion. The CAC provides a safe, neutral, child-friendly environment where child victims and their non-offending families meet with a team of professionals for the purpose of investigation. Children's Advocacy Center staff provides advocacy services and helps bridge the gap between social services, law enforcement, and the court system.

Comments Quincy is the administrative office. Quincy (Adams County) has the only CASA program and houses a CAC. Other CAC's are in Pittsfield, Carthage, and Rushville. CAC interview sites are in every county served.

Services Provided Court Appointed Special Advocates for Children (CASA) and the Children's Advocacy Centers (CAC). CASA volunteers are trained community volunteers appointed by a judge to speak up for abused or neglected children in the court system. CASA volunteers work alongside attorneys and social workers from case inception to its completion. The CAC provides a safe, neutral, child-friendly environment where child victims and their non-offending families meet with a team of professionals for the purpose of investigation. Children's Advocacy Center staff provides advocacy services and helps bridge the gap between social services, law enforcement, and the court system.
